

'Hell is around the corner'

You say that my pretty face is going to hell, but... have you forgotten that I've been there?
Have you lost your mind
and suddenly erased the memories of you,
taking me by the hand,
leading me into the stairs of the underworld?

Why now, my pretty face is been sent to hell?
Is it vengage?
Is it payback?
Is it?
Just because, I quit giving you all...
Just because...
I'm showing you what justice is about...
But neither divine nor life's,
only simple and human.

I never made you go through hell... and I never will.
I only showed you what heaven is like,
how eternity in love can be...
But now, my mind won't allow my heart to show you all these...
not anymore...

You want to sent me to hell...
your heart won't let you,
maybe, but just, maybe...
your mind will try it,
however no matter how many efforts it performs,
it will continue to fail... and fail... and fail...

Failure will be found when you realize that...
you can't forget me...
when you find yourself,
surrounded by many people,
but feeling alone...
knowing that I'm not by your side,
you'll see who was sent to hell...
'cos hell is around the corner
at the time you killed a pure love.

Hell is around the corner,
of the path of life,
'cos you tainted me and yourself,
with the dirt you never wanted to clean out from your heart.

Hell is around the corner,
and I won't be there for you.
Hell is around the corner,
and you must face it alone.
